

The taxpayers finally receive a law that directly benefits them and industries with more money and resources are allowed to snatch it away. I say leave things as they are. Opposed to any change.